Case No. 1:14-cv-196

vs.

CHARLENE PEGG, et al.,

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Defendant Elikim Shabazz filed a pro se notice of removal of a state court civil action to the United States District Court. By separate Order issued this date, Mr. Shabazz has been granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. This matter is before the Court for a sua sponte review of Mr. Shabazz's notice, which the Court construes as a petition for removal of a state court action to this federal court, to determine whether the Court has jurisdiction over this matter. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B); Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(h)(3).

The removal petition alleges that Mr. Shabazz is a party-defendant to a state court mortgage foreclosure action initiated in the Hamilton County, Ohio Court of Common Pleas. The attachments to the notice and the state court's docket reflect a complaint in foreclosure against Mr. Shabazz and others was filed by JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association on December 27, 2013. See JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association v. Pegg, Case No. A1308435 (Hamilton County, Ohio Court of Common Pleas).¹

¹"Federal courts may take judicial notice of proceedings in other courts of record." Rodic v. Thistledown Racing Club, Inc., 615 F.2d 736, 738 (6th Cir. 1980)(quoting Granader v. Public Bank, 417 F.2d 75, 82-83 (6th Cir. 1969), cert. denied, 397 U.S. 1065 (1970), cert. denied, 449 U.S. 996 (1980)). See also Lyons v. Stovall, 188 F.3d 327, 333 n.3 (6th Cir. 1999); Saint Torrance v. Firststar, 529 F. Supp.2d 836, 838 n.1 (S.D. Ohio 2007).

Removal is governed by 28 U.S.C. § 1441 which provides in relevant part: “[A]ny civil action brought in a State court of which the district courts of the United States have original jurisdiction, may be removed by the defendant or the defendants, to the district court of the United States for the district and division embracing the place where such action is pending.” 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a). Thus, “[o]nly state-court actions that originally could have been filed in federal court may be removed to federal court by the defendant.” Caterpillar Inc. v. Williams, 482 U.S. 386, 392 (1987). The defendant carries the burden of showing that removal is proper and that the federal court has original jurisdiction to hear the case. See Village of Oakwood v. State Bank and Trust Co., 539 F.3d 373, 377 (6th Cir. 2008); Ahearn v. Charter Township of Bloomfield, 100 F.3d 451, 453-54 (6th Cir. 1996). The removal statute is to be strictly construed and where jurisdiction is in doubt, the matter should be remanded to the state court. See Brierly v. Alusuisse Flexible Packaging, Inc., 184 F.3d 527, 534 (6th Cir. 1999), cert. denied, 528 U.S. 1076 (2000).

To the extent Mr. Shabazz may premise removal on the basis of the Court’s diversity jurisdiction, Mr. Shabazz may not remove the state court action on this basis. The removal statute provides that a civil action “may not be removed if any of the parties in interest properly joined and served as defendants is a citizen of the State in which such action is brought.” 28 U.S.C. § 1441(b)(2). Even if there is complete diversity among the parties, the presence of a properly joined and served resident defendant bars removal. Chase Manhattan Mortgage Corp. v. Smith, 507 F.3d 910, 914 (6th Cir. 2007); Federal National Mortgage Association v. LeCrone, 868 F.2d 190, 194 (6th Cir. 1989). Because the majority of the defendants named in the foreclosure action are Ohio citizens, removal is barred under section 1441(b).

In addition, the Court cannot discern a basis for federal question jurisdiction in this matter. District courts have original federal question jurisdiction over cases “arising under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States.” 28 U.S.C. § 1331. In determining whether an action has been properly removed to federal court, the Court must examine the face of the plaintiff’s well-pleaded complaint. Under the well-pleaded complaint rule, district courts have federal question removal jurisdiction over “only those cases in which a well-pleaded complaint establishes either that federal law creates the cause of action or that the plaintiff’s right to relief necessarily depends on resolution of a substantial question of federal law.” Franchise Tax Bd. v. Constr. Laborers Vacation Trust, 463 U.S. 1, 27-28 (1983). In other words, a case arises under federal law when an issue of federal law appears on the face of the plaintiff’s well-pleaded complaint. Caterpillar, 482 U.S. at 392; Metropolitan Life Ins. Co. v. Taylor, 481 U.S. 58, 63 (1987). The plaintiff is the master of the claim and may avoid federal jurisdiction by exclusive reliance on state law. See Caterpillar, 482 U.S. at 392. In addition, “it is now settled law that a case may not be removed to federal court on the basis of a federal defense . . . even if the defense is anticipated in the plaintiff’s complaint, and even if both parties concede that the federal defense is the only question truly at issue.” Caterpillar, 482 U.S. at 393 (emphasis in the original) (citing Franchise Tax Board, 463 U.S. at 12). See also Beneficial National Bank v. Anderson, 539 U.S. 1, 6 (2003); Metropolitan Life, 481 U.S. at 63; Chase Manhattan Mortgage Corp., 507 F.3d at 915.

Mr. Shabazz has failed to establish this Court has original federal question jurisdiction over this case. The state court complaint and amended complaint attached to the notice of removal do not show this case arises under the Constitution or laws of the United States. Mr.

Shabazz appears to contend that the foreclosure action violates his constitutional and civil rights. However, even if Mr. Shabazz asserts a federal defense to the state court foreclosure action, the existence of a defense based upon federal law is insufficient to support removal jurisdiction. Franchise Tax Board, 463 U.S. at 8-12; Chase Manhattan Mortgage Corp., 507 F.3d at 914-15. Therefore, Mr. Shabazz has failed to meet his burden of showing federal question jurisdiction in this matter.

Accordingly, the Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over this case. Mr. Shabazz's petition for removal should be denied, this matter should be dismissed from the docket of the Court, and the case should be remanded to the state court.

IT IS THEREFORE RECOMMENDED:

1. Mr. Shabazz's petition for removal of a state court action to this federal court should be DENIED.
2. This matter should be dismissed from the docket of the Court.
3. This matter should be REMANDED to the state court. See 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c).
4. The Court should certify pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a) that for the foregoing reasons an appeal of any Order adopting this Report and Recommendation would not be taken in good faith and therefore deny Mr. Shabazz leave to appeal in forma pauperis. Mr. Shabazz should also be advised that he remains free to apply to proceed in forma pauperis in the Court of Appeals. See Callihan v. Schneider, 178 F.3d 800, 803 (6th Cir. 1999), overruling in part Floyd v. United States Postal Serv., 105 F.3d 274, 277 (6th Cir. 1997).
